GRACIOUS AMERICAN SERVICE with PRIDE

OUR AMERICAN STAFF IS ALWAYS WARM, WELCOMING AND GENUINE

SERVICE WITH A SMILE

DETAILS MAKE THE DIFFERENCE

A LONG TRADITION

The unmistakable comfort of warm American service on the water has been a tradition since the middle of the 19th century, when the grand steamboats of the popular Anchor Line roamed the Mississippi River and the elegant paddlewheelers of the fabled Collins Line carried the Stars and Stripes across the Atlantic. The American waterborne experience reached its apex in 1952 with the debut of the ocean liner United States, which still holds the record for the fastest commercial crossing of the North Atlantic.

French America Line is proud to carry on the legacy of smiling and refined service from the companies and vessels that have had the honor of flying the American flag. The Louisiane was built in the United States, is registered in New Orleans and employs a dedicated American service staff committed to fulfilling your every whim.

THE INNATE DESIRE TO SERVE

We have carefully chosen our staff based on myriad requirements ranging from years of service in fine hotels and restaurants to their eagerness to provide you with a vacation experience second to none and their magical ability to anticipate your needs and desires.

A waiter in the Bar Royale greets you by name each evening and begins preparing your libation of choice without even being asked. The Crescent Room features wait staff who effortlessly remember your penchant for chocolate with an extra serving of each delectable dessert. Your stateroom attendant swiftly learns your desire to relax in the late afternoon and schedules your suite or stateroom turn-down service accordingly. It is only the finest applicants culled from an impressive list that have the honor of becoming part of the French America Line family and earn the privilege of serving you.

CHEF DE CUISINE REGINA CHARBONEAU

ACCLAIMED CHEF, AUTHOR AND RESTAURATEUR

CHEF DE CUISINE REGINA CHARBONEAU

WHERE FRANCE and AMERICA MEET

A renowned chef and author, Regina Charboneau studied in Paris before opening celebrated restaurants to worldwide acclaim. She now brings her boundless creativity and stunning flavor pairings to French America Line to craft cuisine unmatched on America's inland waterways. A resident of Natchez, one of our most charming antebellum destinations, she got her start in San Francisco where she launched Regina's at the Regis and later the award-winning Biscuits & Blues nightclub.

She returned to Natchez in 2001 and opened the Twin Oaks Bed and Breakfast in a historic antebellum home dating to 1832, where she teaches cooking classes as well as serves as a warm, ebullient host. Her latest venture is King's Tavern in Natchez, specializing in fresh farm-to-table selections. Under her deft touch, the dining experience on the Louisiane is elevated to an apogee of gastronomic pleasure.

PANACHE and COMFORT

"A meal is a celebration," she claims. "It is a time when we gather together at one table and celebrate family and friends, both old and new, with love and laughter. The cuisine should both embrace and lift the spirit."

She blends the panache of French cuisine with the comfort of Southern staples. "The French have a natural ability to acknowledge each flavor, each spice and each cooking method in a manner that brings them together in a harmonious symphony. Southern cuisine does the same in a straightforward way that celebrates regional ingredients blending myriad cultural and agricultural influences," she says. Regina is proud to encompass both styles in her menus as she brings the regions in which the Louisiane sails directly to the plate. Much of the American South was deeply influenced by the French and so is French America Line's elegant but wonderfully familiar cuisine.

THE FINE ART OF CRÊPE MAKING

THE DELICIOUS RESULT

PREVIEW the FLAVORS

CHEF REGINA'S RECIPE REVEALED

CRÊPES SUZETTE

SERVES 8

CRÊPE INGREDIENTS

2 large eggs
1/2 cup milk
1/8 teaspoon salt
1 cup all-purpose flour
2 tablespoons salted butter, melted
Vegetable oil spray

SAUCE INGREDIENTS

3/4 cup sugar
1 tablespoon finely grated orange zest
1/4 cup (1/2 stick) salted butter
1/4 cup Grand Marnier® or other orange-flavored liqueur

DIRECTIONS

Whisk the eggs in a bowl. Add the milk, 1/2 cup water, and the salt and whisk to combine. Slowly whisk in the flour and the melted butter to make a smooth, thin batter. Let batter rest for 10 minutes before using.

Heat a 6-inch crêpe pan or nonstick skillet over medium-high heat. When the pan is hot, lightly coat with the vegetable spray. Ladle about 1/4 cup of the batter into the pan, tilting it to coat evenly with batter.

Cook until the crêpe is golden brown on the bottom and the top is set, about 1 minute. Using a rubber spatula, flip the crêpe. Cook on the second side until light brown and set, about 30 seconds. Transfer to a plate. Repeat with the remaining batter, separating the cooked crêpes with sheets of wax paper. (The crêpes can be made up to 2 hours ahead and kept at room temperature.)

To make the sauce, combine the sugar and orange zest in a bowl. Let sit for 1 hour so that the zest can impart an orange flavor to the sugar.

Melt the butter in a large skillet over low heat, being careful not to let it brown. Add the orange sugar and cook, stirring constantly with a wooden spoon, until the sugar dissolves completely, about 2 minutes.

Fold eight crêpes (the best ones, if you've made more) into quarters and place them in the skillet over medium heat, stirring to coat each evenly with the sauce. Carefully add the Grand Marnier® and, using a long-handled lighter, ignite the contents. Stand away from the stove for a few seconds and let the flames die down. Turn off the burner. Place one crêpe on each of eight dessert plates and serve immediately.

THE CRESCENT ROOM

A BLEND of TASTES

Voice the enticing words bon appétit before dining aboard the Louisiane and pay homage to the refined French influence of our cuisine, which has been liberally swirled with traditional Southern recipes. This pleasing mélange reflects the Parisian sense of delicacy and the enthusiasm of New Orleans. Under the aegis of our Chef de Cuisine Regina Charboneau, herself a blend of Southern and French lineage, each meal becomes a celebration of life, each course a moment of sheer bliss and each bite an unforgettable sensation.

Afternoon tea with a lemon madeleine is the prelude to entering The Crescent Room for epicurean wonders ranging from Chicken with Roasted Squash Stuffing or Classic Escargot to a perfectly-grilled Filet Mignon with Béarnaise Sauce or Fresh Gulf Shrimp with Cheese Grits. The symphony of indulgence reaches a culinary crescendo with a delicate French Vanilla Bean Soufflé or a decadent slice of Bourbon Pecan Pie. Naturally, dining is open seating, meaning you may dine when you choose with whomever you wish. For those who desire to be sated at any time of day, partake of our complimentary 24-hour room service, a vanishing luxury in today's world.

CASUAL ELEGANCE

The Crescent Room, our opulent main restaurant, is a plush jewel box inset with sparkling chandeliers and the center stage for each day's culinary stars. While rotisserie meats and an assortment of crêpes are The Veranda's signatures, the extensive menu will please your palate in so many other delightful ways. Choose to begin the day with warm made-to-order Café du Monde® Beignets created using the time-honored ingredients perfected by New Orleans' legendary Café du Monde accompanied by their special blend of café au lait. ENRICHED and ENTERTAINED

LIVE MUSIC, STIMULATING LECTURES AND NOTED HISTORIANS

THE SOUNDS of A NATION

The rivers of America flow through a medley of sounds from the energizing jazz of New Orleans and electric zydeco of Southwest Louisiana to the rollicking blues of Memphis and the down-home bluegrass of Tennessee. Rock and roll takes on a different tone depending on its origins, while the soothing melodies of big band blend with today's contemporary hits throughout America's cities and towns. This vast tapestry is more than the heartbeat of a country. It is the soul of a nation.

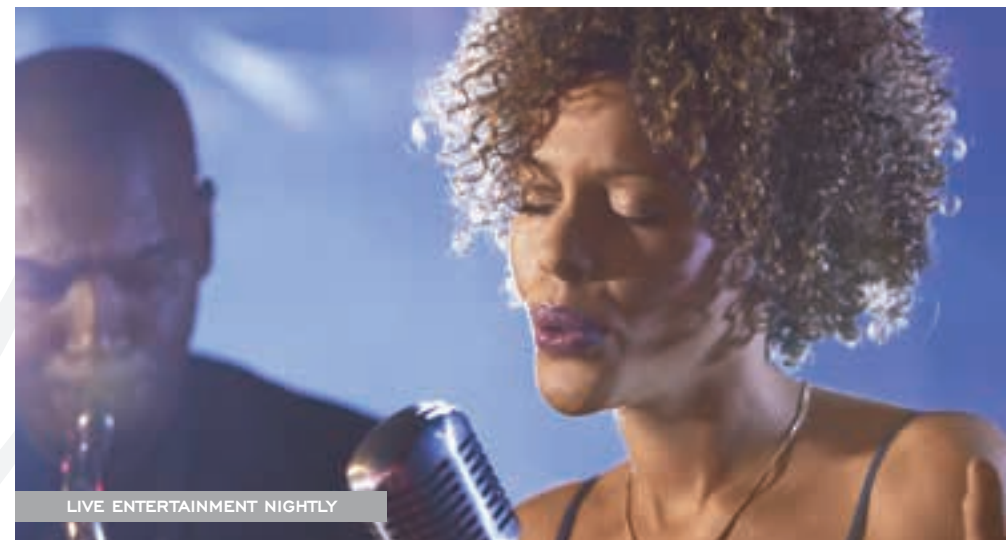

Raise a craft beer or glass of Merlot to a jazz ensemble in the French Quarter Lounge, or find an acoustic guitarist playing a soft rock hit from the 1970s. With our special touch of unique and exclusive live entertainment, The Crescent Room is transformed each evening from an elegant dining venue to a stylish cabaret where talented performers hold court. Tap your toes to traditional big band numbers, standards from the great American songbook or even contemporary hits performed in the classic style of the 1950s.

ENTERTAINMENT meets CULTURE

The lands through which we travel also have stories to tell, and we've gathered a line-up of best-selling authors, noted historians, esteemed professors, and local characters to hold talks on a variety of cultural, historical and political subjects. You might discover how the Civil War influenced the electorate for generations or why most of what is considered American comfort food traces its roots to the staples of European immigrants of the 19th and 20th centuries.

French America Line embraces all the music and culture that represents the best of traditional story-telling and modern songwriters to create a sometimes eclectic, but always entertaining, experience as the Louisiane sails the inland waterways.

EMBRACE your SENSES

America's spirit is as broad as the blue sky, as vast as the rolling hills and as restless as the ribbons of its mighty rivers. The Illuminator, our onboard historian, will interpret the social and cultural core of each region as the Louisiane sails into the heart of this great country to places that are a gentle reminder of times past and a look into visions of the future. A refreshing pitcher of lemonade sits next to a porch swing on a bright warm day. The fresh perfumed fragrance of magnolias or the crisp smoky scent of a fireplace is carried on the breeze. This is the America you've always wanted to see.

THE TRAVELER COLLECTION™

With our complimentary Traveler Collection shore excursions in each port of call, you won't miss a moment of pleasure, since each tour includes a personal Vox® listening device to easily hear the narration. Gaze up at the Gateway Arch in St. Louis, tour the ornate antebellum homes of Natchez and walk along Beale Street in Memphis to the sounds of blues and jazz. CULINARY ARTS with CHEF REGINA

THE CURATOR COLLECTION™

Our optional Curator Collection shore excursions dive into the heart of each destination to uncover the spirit, personality and soul that make each city and town in America unique. Perhaps the best example of our Curator Collection tours can be found in Natchez, where we offer a visit to Twin Oaks, our Chef de Cuisine Regina Charboneau's residence. This charming antebellum home dates to 1843 and features a six-room guest house and an ornate kitchen, which is the stage for a cooking class taught by the culinary master herself. Learn that the secret to cooking perfect beignets is to let the oil come back up to temperature between batches, or observe the hot skillet technique for a scrumptious corn, mushroom and onion tart. Depending on her inclination and the ingredients of the day, perhaps she will showcase her airy biscuits, which boast a special ratio of yeast and baking powder resulting in a cloud-like bite that is lighter and fluffier than you ever thought possible.

LIVING LEGENDS of MARK TWAIN

THE TRAVELER COLLECTION™

In each port of call, we include a complimentary shore excursion that reveals the true character of each destination. A quintessential example is Hannibal where we explore the boyhood of legendary author Mark Twain and the places and people that influenced his writings. Tour the Mark Twain Boyhood Home & Museum and view 15 original Norman Rockwell paintings that were created for special illustrated editions of The Adventures of Tom Sawyer and Adventures of Huckleberry Finn. See Mark Twain's famed white jacket, believed to be the only one in existence, as well as his typewriter, writing desk and chair. Peruse 54 original pen and ink drawings by artist Dan Beard used to illustrate A Connecticut Yankee in King Arthur's Court, then stroll through the art galleries in downtown Hannibal and discover how many pay homage to Twain's characters. Our complimentary Traveler Collection shore excursions bring you the best of each port of call.
